Notes: The Developmental Scale Score (DSS) is used to compare students' scores between grade levels in order to determine annual growth. The DSS links adjacent grades together and permits student progress to be tracked over time. Students should receive higher DSSs as they advance from one grade level to the next.

Percent match is the percent of students with scores for both 2004 and 2005.

No data are reported when fewer than 10 students in a category were tested, as indicated by an "*."

No students were tested in the curriculum group in one of the two years, as indicated by an "n/a."

A curriculum group listing will not appear if no students in the group were tested in either year.

The Matched Students results for grade 3 reflect only students retained in grade 3 in 2004-2005. At all other grade levels, the "matched students" results include both students promoted from the prior grade and students retained in the grade who have scores for 2004 and 2005.

Notes: The Developmental Scale Score (DSS) is used to compare students' scores between grade levels in order to determine annual growth. The DSS links adjacent grades together and permits student progress to be tracked over time. Students should receive higher DSSs as they advance from one grade level to the next.

Percent match is the percent of students with scores for both 2004 and 2005.

No data are reported when fewer than 10 students in a category were tested, as indicated by an "*".

No students were tested in the curriculum group in one of the two years, as indicated by an "n/a."

A curriculum group listing will not appear if no students in the group were tested in either year.

The Matched Students results for grade 3 reflect only students retained in grade 3 in 2004-2005. At all other grade levels, the "matched students" results include both students promoted from the prior grade and students retained in the grade who have scores for 2004 and 2005.

Notes: The Developmental Scale Score (DSS) is used to compare students' scores between grade levels in order to determine annual growth. The DSS links adjacent grades together and permits student progress to be tracked over time. Students should receive higher DSSs as they advance from one grade level to the next.

Percent match is the percent of students with scores for both 2004 and 2005.

No data are reported when fewer than 10 students in a category were tested, as indicated by an "*."

No students were tested in the curriculum group in one of the two years, as indicated by an "n/a."

A curriculum group listing will not appear if no students in the group were tested in either year.

The Matched Students results for grade 3 reflect only students retained in grade 3 in 2004-2005. At all other grade levels, the "matched students" results include both students promoted from the prior grade and students retained in the grade who have scores for 2004 and 2005.

No students were tested in the curriculum group in one of the two years, as indicated by an "n/a."

A curriculum group listing will not appear if no students in the group were tested in either year.

The Matched Students results for grade 3 reflect only students retained in grade 3 in 2004-2005. At all other grade levels, the "matched students" results include both students promoted from the prior grade and students retained in the grade who have scores for 2004 and 2005.

Percent match is the percent of students with scores for both 2004 and 2005.

No data are reported when fewer than 10 students in a category were tested, as indicated by an "*."

No students were tested in the curriculum group in one of the two years, as indicated by an "n/a."

A curriculum group listing will not appear if no students in the group were tested in either year.

The Matched Students results for grade 3 reflect only students retained in grade 3 in 2004-2005. At all other grade levels, the "matched students" results include both students promoted from the prior grade and students retained in the grade who have scores for 2004 and 2005.

No students were tested in the curriculum group in one of the two years, as indicated by an "n/a."

A curriculum group listing will not appear if no students in the group were tested in either year.

The Matched Students results for grade 3 reflect only students retained in grade 3 in 2004-2005. At all other grade levels, the "matched students" results include both students promoted from the prior grade and students retained in the grade who have scores for 2004 and 2005.

The DSS links adjacent grades together and permits student progress to be tracked over time. Students should receive higher DSSs as they advance from one grade level to the next.

Percent match is the percent of students with scores for both 2004 and 2005.

No data are reported when fewer than 10 students in a category were tested, as indicated by an "*."

No students were tested in the curriculum group in one of the two years, as indicated by an "n/a."

A curriculum group listing will not appear if no students in the group were tested in either year.

The Matched Students results for grade 3 reflect only students retained in grade 3 in 2004-2005. At all other grade levels, the "matched students" results include both students promoted from the prior grade and students retained in the grade who have scores for 2004 and 2005.

Notes: The Developmental Scale Score (DSS) is used to compare students' scores between grade levels in order to determine annual growth. The DSS links adjacent grades together and permits student progress to be tracked over time. Students should receive higher DSSs as they advance from one grade level to the next.

Percent match is the percent of students with scores for both 2004 and 2005.

No data are reported when fewer than 10 students in a category were tested, as indicated by an "*."

No students were tested in the curriculum group in one of the two years, as indicated by an "n/a."

A curriculum group listing will not appear if no students in the group were tested in either year.

The Matched Students results for grade 3 reflect only students retained in grade 3 in 2004-2005. At all other grade levels, the "matched students" results include both students promoted from the prior grade and students retained in the grade who have scores for 2004 and 2005.

Notes: The Developmental Scale Score (DSS) is used to compare students' scores between grade levels in order to determine annual growth. The DSS links adjacent grades together and permits student progress to be tracked over time. Students should receive higher DSSs as they advance from one grade level to the next.

Percent match is the percent of students with scores for both 2004 and 2005.

No data are reported when fewer than 10 students in a category were tested, as indicated by an "*."

No students were tested in the curriculum group in one of the two years, as indicated by an "n/a."

A curriculum group listing will not appear if no students in the group were tested in either year.

The Matched Students results for grade 3 reflect only students retained in grade 3 in 2004-2005. At all other grade levels, the "matched students" results include both students promoted from the prior grade and students retained in the grade who have scores for 2004 and 2005.

Notes: The Developmental Scale Score (DSS) is used to compare students' scores between grade levels in order to determine annual growth. The DSS links adjacent grades together and permits student progress to be tracked over time. Students should receive higher DSSs as they advance from one grade level to the next.

Percent match is the percent of students with scores for both 2004 and 2005.

No data are reported when fewer than 10 students in a category were tested, as indicated by an "*."

No students were tested in the curriculum group in one of the two years, as indicated by an "n/a."

A curriculum group listing will not appear if no students in the group were tested in either year.

The Matched Students results for grade 3 reflect only students retained in grade 3 in 2004-2005. At all other grade levels, the "matched students" results include both students promoted from the prior grade and students retained in the grade who have scores for 2004 and 2005.

Notes: The Developmental Scale Score (DSS) is used to compare students' scores between grade levels in order to determine annual growth. The DSS links adjacent grades together and permits student progress to be tracked over time. Students should receive higher DSSs as they advance from one grade level to the next.

Percent match is the percent of students with scores for both 2004 and 2005.

No data are reported when fewer than 10 students in a category were tested, as indicated by an "*."

No students were tested in the curriculum group in one of the two years, as indicated by an "n/a."

A curriculum group listing will not appear if no students in the group were tested in either year.

The Matched Students results for grade 3 reflect only students retained in grade 3 in 2004-2005. At all other grade levels, the "matched students" results include both students promoted from the prior grade and students retained in the grade who have scores for 2004 and 2005.

Notes: The Developmental Scale Score (DSS) is used to compare students' scores between grade levels in order to determine annual growth. The DSS links adjacent grades together and permits student progress to be tracked over time. Students should receive higher DSSs as they advance from one grade level to the next.

Percent match is the percent of students with scores for both 2004 and 2005.

No data are reported when fewer than 10 students in a category were tested, as indicated by an "*".

No students were tested in the curriculum group in one of the two years, as indicated by an "n/a."

A curriculum group listing will not appear if no students in the group were tested in either year.

The Matched Students results for grade 3 reflect only students retained in grade 3 in 2004-2005. At all other grade levels, the "matched students" results include both students promoted from the prior grade and students retained in the grade who have scores for 2004 and 2005.

Notes: The Developmental Scale Score (DSS) is used to compare students' scores between grade levels in order to determine annual growth. The DSS links adjacent grades together and permits student progress to be tracked over time. Students should receive higher DSSs as they advance from one grade level to the next.

Percent match is the percent of students with scores for both 2004 and 2005.

No data are reported when fewer than 10 students in a category were tested, as indicated by an "*."

No students were tested in the curriculum group in one of the two years, as indicated by an "n/a."

A curriculum group listing will not appear if no students in the group were tested in either year.

The Matched Students results for grade 3 reflect only students retained in grade 3 in 2004-2005. At all other grade levels, the "matched students" results include both students promoted from the prior grade and students retained in the grade who have scores for 2004 and 2005.

Notes: The Developmental Scale Score (DSS) is used to compare students' scores between grade levels in order to determine annual growth. The DSS links adjacent grades together and permits student progress to be tracked over time. Students should receive higher DSSs as they advance from one grade level to the next.

Percent match is the percent of students with scores for both 2004 and 2005.

No data are reported when fewer than 10 students in a category were tested, as indicated by an "*."

No students were tested in the curriculum group in one of the two years, as indicated by an "n/a."

A curriculum group listing will not appear if no students in the group were tested in either year.

The Matched Students results for grade 3 reflect only students retained in grade 3 in 2004-2005. At all other grade levels, the "matched students" results include both students promoted from the prior grade and students retained in the grade who have scores for 2004 and 2005.
